

Q1: What architecture helps users to get their requests done while connecting to the database?

Q2: What is the most simple architecture to set up?

Q3: No additional hardware is required for implementing what type of architecture?

Q4: Why is 1-Tier Architecture the most cost-effective?